Chet Basher Bike Ride Across America

3,415 MILES

15 STATES

I am doing this ride in support of The Wounded Warrior Project. A foundation that helps and supplies psychological and physical support for our brave veterans.

With CrossRoads Cycling I will begin my journey across the country on May 12th 2012 in Los Angeles, California by dipping my rear wheel into the Pacific Ocean. I will then bike 3,415 miles to my final destination in Boston, Massachusetts arriving on June 27th 2012 where I will dip my front wheel into the Atlantic Ocean.
